CUBS ANNOUNCE BASEBALL OPERATIONS HIRINGS AND PROMOTIONS

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 2019

CHICAGO – The Chicago Cubs today announced a series of hirings and promotions within the baseball operations department.

Kyle Evans has been promoted to Senior Director, Player Personnel. Evans enters his eighth season with the Cubs organization and has held a variety of roles with the club, having spent the last two seasons as Special Assistant to the President and General Manager/Director of Pro Scouting. In his new role, Evans will continue to be a key decision maker on all major league transactions. He will evaluate players both inside and outside the organization for trades and free agent signings. Evans will also work closely with our major league coaching staff with a focus on transition and development plans for players at that level.

Jeff Greenberg has been promoted to Director of Pro Scouting and Baseball Operations. Greenberg joined the Cubs in 2012 as a baseball operations intern and was later promoted to Assistant to the General Manager prior to the 2015 campaign. He was promoted to Director of Baseball Operations last year.

The following additional promotions and hirings have occurred within the club's baseball operations department:
